

What to do in Portland on Monday, Feb 25, 2019
the day after ValenTango.
(Suggestion: Ask bellhop or front desk for a walking map of Portland.)

All Day	Eat out at any of the restaurants along Broadway or Weidler— just a few blocks north of DoubleTree. Also, check out Restaurant Guide .
	Shop at the huge Lloyd Center Mall across the street and just north of DoubleTree, have some coffee and sit and watch the ice skaters.
	Visit any of the 12 Top-Rated Tourists Attractions in Portland .
	Ride the Max Light Rail to Pioneer Square in downtown Portland and shop, eat, and people watch. (Max station is located across the south east corner from DoubleTree and ride takes only 15-20 minutes.)
	Go for a bike ride. Portland is extremely bike friendly and has loaner bikes available from stations all over town—one located right in front of the DoubleTree hotel. For info, go to www.biketownpdx.com
9:00a-2:30p 4:00-7:00p	Practice tango in Cascade Ballroom (upstairs of the DoubleTree). No charge.
2:30-4:00p	Attend the free Guided Practica in the Cascade Ballroom (upstairs of the DoubleTree) with festival instructors there to help.
After 2:00p	See a movie at the Regal Lloyd 10 Theater Cinema , 1510 N.E. Multnomah St (3 blocks east of the DoubleTree)
8:00p-1:00a	Attend the Monday Closing Milonga in the Cascade Ballroom (upstairs of the DoubleTree). Admission is $10.
8:00p-1:00a	Attend Milonga de Oro at the Polish Center, 3832 N Interstate Ave. Admission is $10.